alvin
THE STORYTELLER

GIANT'S LETTER

1 LETTER · WITH THE ANSWER

The giant wrote to Snowy,

but the letters got into a muddle.

SPOT AND FIX THE WORDS

alvin
THE STORYTELLER

HOW TO PLAY

1

Read the giant's letter.

Rand the giant is writing to his friend Snowy.

2

Some words came out wrong.

The letters inside them have swapped places - rae is really are.

3

Write the letter out properly.

Fix every muddled word on the lines on the next page.

4

Then compare.

The last page has the letter the giant meant to write.

A note for grown-ups

Read the muddled version aloud exactly as written. The nonsense is the joke, and hearing it is what makes the right word obvious.

GIANT'S LETTER

Read it carefully. Some of the words came out wrong.

AS THE GIANT WROTE IT

Dear Snowy,

How rae you? I am very ahppy . Made I many friends new. They are very knid . An lef gave me a new pover . I become can both big and small. My friends low me a lot. Hobe you are dong well.

With low,

RAND

How many muddled words can you find?

WRITE IT PROPERLY

Copy the giant's letter out with every word the right way round.

THE ANSWER

This is the letter the giant meant to write.

WHAT HE MEANT TO SAY

Dear Snowy,

How are you? I am very happy. I made many new friends. They are very kind. An elf gave me a new power. I can become both big and small. My friends love me a lot. Hope you are doing well.

With love,

RAND